

2016 Thomas Fogarty Winery Langley Hill Vineyard
Estate Chardonnay | 93

A dense, phenolic expression emerges from 2016 Chardonnay Langley Hill Vineyard. Exotic and tropical, with striking textural resonance, the 2016 fleshes out with notable richness. Candied orange peel, mint and honeyed notes infuse this oily, unctuous Chardonnay. Interestingly, time in the glass brings out freshness in the Langley Hill. The 2016 is the kind of Chardonnay that benefits from being opened several hours in advance.

2016 Thomas Fogarty Winery Albutom Vineyard
Estate Chardonnay | 93

Sadly, there is just one barrel of the 2016 Chardonnay Albutom Vineyard to go around. In the glass, the Albutom presents an intriguing combination of mountain structure laced with tropically-leaning inflections. Pineapple, passionfruit, lemon confit and wild flowers take shape as this super-expressive Chardonnay shows off its distinctive personality.

2016 Thomas Fogarty Winery Damiana Vineyard
Estate Chardonnay | 94

The 2016 Chardonnay Damiana Vineyard offers a super-intriguing combination of richness and freshness that makes it one of the most satisfying wines in the range. Powerful and layered on the palate, with striking aromatic lift, the Damiana is a wonderfully complete Chardonnay. The Damiana emerges from the oldest vines on the property.

2016 Thomas Fogarty Winery Portola Springs Vineyard
Estate Chardonnay | 92

The 2016 Chardonnay Portola Springs Vineyard offers lovely aromatic presence to play off its overt fruit. Lemon confit, mint and orange peel are all pushed forward in this delicate, super-appealing Chardonnay from Fogarty. Volcanic soils and a cool micro-climate are two of the signatures at Portola Springs.

2016 Thomas Fogarty Winery Santa Cruz Mountains
Estate Chardonnay | 90

Fogarty's 2016 Chardonnay Estate is pliant, supple and inviting. Apricot, hazelnut, candied lemon peel are all woven together in this soft, open-knit Chardonnay. This is an especially succulent style for the appellation. An infusion of lightly tropical notes adds complexity on the finish.
